the couple's style

Kaley wore a strapless silk ball gown with beading and blush-colored flowers down the sides. Matt chose a traditional black tuxedo.

the seating charts

Oversize seating charts were displayed in large mirrors on the walls.

the ceremony décor

Rows of chairs with different-colored covers created a dramatic ombre effect at the ceremony.

THE GROOM Matthew (Matt) Schliep, 32, a financial analyst

HOW THEY MET At Calhoun Beach Club

THEIR ENGAGEMENT PERIOD 14 months

THEIR WEDDING STYLE Originally wanting to focus on pink and navy, the couple decided to use just pink. To keep it from looking too girly, Kaley and Matt highlighted the hue with ombre gradients. —AB

the details

Hand-dyed fringe strung with little mirrors and orchids served as a striking backdrop at the ceremony.

the cake

Blush sugar flowers styled after the ones on Kaley's dress topped the elegant four-tiered ivory cake.

the invitations

The pink ombré invitations fit right in with the couple's color palette and theme.

the veil

To complete her day-of look, Kaley wore a cathedral-length veil.

the centerpieces

Tall vases filled with roses, peonies, cockscomb, dahlias, carnations and ranunculus were arranged across the room in an ombré gradient.

the bridal bouquet

Kaley carried a lush white bunch of ranunculus, roses, hydrangeas and dahlias.

the menu cards

Luxe gold-and-pink menu cards rested at each place setting.

the bridal style

For the reception, Kaley removed her veil to reveal a sparkly headpiece.

the bridesmaid bouquets

Even the bridesmaids held pink ombré bouquets.

the reception décor

Modern table numbers were displayed beside the centerpiece bouquets.
